

PALLIATIVE CARE NSW BIENNIAL STATE CONFERENCE - Broken Hill, October 2016

We are delighted to invite you to a Clinical Breakfast to launch the new Palliative Care Therapeutic Guidelines here in Broken Hill at the Palliative Care NSW Biennial State Conference

Date: Saturday 15 October 2016

Time: 7.15am registration, for 7.30am breakfast and presentation, and 8.30am close

Venue: The Royal Exchange Hotel, Argent Street, Broken Hill

Cost: $20 - pay on the day

CPD: Eligible for self-assessment - certificates of attendance will be provided

Speaker: A/Prof Greg Crawford

Senior Consultant in Palliative Medicine & Director of Research and Teaching at Northern Adelaide Palliative Care Service

A GP by background, Greg spent 12 years working on Kangaroo Island before retraining in Palliative Medicine, so he fully understands the needs of GPs providing palliative care in rural Australia

Chair: Dr Sarah Wenham, Specialist Palliative Care Physician Broken Hill

Both Greg and Sarah were members of the Palliative Care Therapeutic Expert Writing Group that has spent the last 18 months fully revising and rewriting the Therapeutic Guidelines in line with the most up to date evidence base

During this interactive workshop, Greg will present the current best practice on pain management and ethical decision-making, as well as a 'What's New' in the Palliative Care Therapeutic Guidelines

A limited number of the new Palliative Care Therapeutic Guidelines book (version 4, 2016) will be available for cash-only purchase only at the breakfast at a discounted rate of only $30 (RRP $39).
